FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Workforce Services Coordinator, Sara Sulko leaves NCWWDB to attend Graduate School

8/5/2010 - Wisconsin Rapids – North Central Wisconsin Workforce Development Board (NCWWDB) announces that Sara Sulko has left her position as Workforce Services Coordinator to attend Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. Sulko plans to obtain her Master of Arts degree to teach English as a Second Language.

Sara joined NCWWDB in October of 2008 in the position of Bilingual Health and Safety Coordinator. Sara's duties were coordinating the Health, Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) grant activities. In her most recent roles as Special Projects Coordinator and Workforce Services Coordinator, Sara helped coordinate the Energy Advocates Program; the 2009 ARRA Summer Youth Employment Program; the 2010 Winter Employment Program and Job Speed Event; and provided recruitment and eligibility determination to Opportunity Grant recipients.

Sara graduated from Wisconsin Lutheran College in Milwaukee with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication and Spanish. While attending Wisconsin Lutheran College she participated in student government and women's soccer. She also studied at ABC College in Barcelona, Spain where she enjoyed meeting other international students and discovering the city.

A life-long resident of the Wausau area, Sara has taught Spanish in an elementary classroom setting to kindergarten through third grade students and tutored with the Literacy Council of Marathon County. In her free time, she enjoys reading and hiking.
